

Windows 10 Profiles for Children

Log in to the computer using a Microsoft account. (You can do this by going to settings, sign in options and selecting your account)

In settings, select Accounts, Family & other users and choose to add a child

Create a Microsoft account for them and get them to accept the invite Manage family settings online to turn on and off website restrictions, set appropriate age restrictions for games and limit screen time.

www.sbrcentre.co.uk

